6. Instruction for investment of corpus given to Army Schools are contained in our letter No B/42044/AWES/18/CW-4(a)-3 dated 17 Sep 90. However, it is again intimated that the entire corpus given by Army HQ to Army Schools under your Command will be kept in fixed deposits with authorised Public Sector Undertakings to generate maximum interest. An Army School should aim to fully meet the salary bills of the school staff from the fees collected from the children plus the interest accruing from the Corpus given by Army HQ. No capital expenditure should be incurred from fees and the interest from the corpus. Capital purchases should be made only from the funds released by Headquarters Commands concerned.

7. One copy each of the AWES Rules and Regulations for Army Schools for the guidance of the formation Headquarters controlling the newly raised Army Schools is being despatched to them. Two copies each of the AWES Rules and Regulations for Army Schools would be forwarded to the Principals of the concerned sanctioned schools when confirmation as asked for in para 3 above is received from them.

8. A new Army School will be designated as 'Army School' followed by the name of the station as given in the Survey Report of the School. Article 232 of the AWES Rules and Regulations for Army Schools refers.
